

Madeline Franze SSJ
Resume

Professional Experience

- 2003-present Development Consultant (see developmentconsultants.net for information)
1988-2003 Development Director for the Sisters of Saint Joseph
 Co-Director (1994-2003)
 Director (1989-1994)
 Set up the development program (1988-89)
 Program efforts raised $44 million over the years 1989-2003
1976-1988 Elementary School Principal
1969-1976 Elementary School Teacher

Education/Credentials

- 2008 Certificate in Human Resources – LaSalle University
1994 CFRE Certification (Certified Fund Raising Executive)
1992 Certificate from the Development Education Program for Religious Congregations
 (sponsored by the Leadership Conference of Women Religious, funded by the Lilly Endowment)
1991 Certificate in Fundraising Management – University of Pennsylvania
1986 Certificate in Fundraising – Omaha Development Institute for Education
1985 MA in Administration – Villanova University
1974 BS in Elementary Education – Chestnut Hill College

Professional Affiliations

- Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) – formerly NSFRE – Member since 1988
National Catholic Development Conference (NCDC) – Member since 1988

Service

- National Catholic Development Conference (NCDC): served on the Board of Directors, frequent presenter at national convention; conference planning committee, 2002
National Association of Treasurers for Religious Institutes (NATRI): presenter at two national conventions; assisted in formulation of NATRI/NCDC manual Stewardship for Mission: Where Development and Finance Meet
Norwood-Fontbonne Academy: served as member of the Advisory Council; chair of development sub-committee of the strategic planning committee
Sisters of Saint Joseph, Strategic Plan Implementation Committee: chair

Awards

- 2010 George T. Holloway Award for Distinguished Service, National Catholic Development Conference
2008 President's Award, Association of Fundraising Professionals, Philadelphia Chapter