

Mary McFadden SSJ
Resume

Professional Experience

2003-present Development Consultant (see developmentconsultants.net for information)
1992-2003 Development Director for the Sisters of Saint Joseph
 Co-Director (1994-2003)
 Assistant Director (1992-1994)
 Member of the Development Advisory Board (1989-1992)
 Program efforts raised $44 million over the years 1989-2003
1986-1992 High School Science Teacher
1979-1986 Elementary School Science Teacher

Education/Credentials

2009 Certificate in Non-Profit Management – LaSalle University
1999 MA in Philanthropy and Development – Saint Mary’s University of Minnesota
1997 CFRE Certification (Certified Fund Raising Executive)
1992 Participation in the Development Education Program for Religious Congregations
 (sponsored by the Leadership Conference of Women Religious, funded by the Lilly Endowment)
1990 MA in Biology – Villanova University
1976 BS in Biology – Chestnut Hill College

Professional Affiliations

Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) – formerly NSFRE – Member since 1992
National Catholic Development Conference (NCDC) – Member since 1992

Service

National Catholic Development Conference (NCDC): frequent presenter at national convention; conference planning committee, 2002
National Association of Treasurers for Religious Institutes (NATRI): presenter at two national conventions;
 editor NATRI/NCDC manual Stewardship for Mission: Where Development and Finance Meet
Sisters of Saint Joseph, Strategic Plan Implementation Committee: secretary
Cecilian Academy: member of the strategic planning committee, chair of development committee